Re: Foreman et al v. Metropolitan Transportation Authority et al
21 Civ. 3774 (NRB)

Dear Counsel:

A review of the docket sheet in the above-captioned matter indicates that your complaint was filed on April 28, 2021, and that, as of today's date, the complaint has not been served on the defendants. Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as amended as of January 1, 2018, provides:

If a defendant is not served within 90 days after the complaint is filed, the court — on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff — must dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within a specified time. But if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period.

Thus, unless you achieve service or can show good cause why your time to serve should be extended, this matter will be dismissed without prejudice on July 27, 2021.

Very truly yours,
